The Company's shareholder, owner of preference shares, shall have the right to participate at a general meeting of shareholders attended in person and shall be authorized to participate in the discussions of considered issues thereat but shall have no right to vote except for cases provided for in paragraph 7.4 hereof.

Invited persons may participate in a general meeting of shareholders attended in person. Such persons with the permit of the Chairman shall have a right to deliver a speech.

10.38. A general meeting of shareholders shall be opened in the announced time in presence of a quorum.

A general meeting of shareholders may not be opened earlier than the announced time, excluding the cases when all shareholders (and their representatives) are already registered and notified and have no objections against change of the meeting opening time.

If within an hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall be stand adjourned and called again for a date and time specified in an issued call for a meeting to be held.

10.39. General meeting of shareholders shall elect Chairman (Presidium).

General meeting of shareholders shall determine a voting procedure, either open or secret (by ballots). Voting on election of Chairman (Presidium) of general meeting of shareholders shall be executed on one share-one vote method with a decision to be taken by a simple majority of votes out of the total number of voting shares of the Company taking part in a vote. Members of the Management Board shall not be authorized to chair general meeting of shareholders with exception of cases when all attendants are the members of the Management Board.

The Corporate Secretary of the Company shall act as the Secretary of general meeting of shareholders.

10. 40. In the course of general meeting of shareholders its Chairman shall have the right to put to vote a proposal on closure of debates with respect to the matter under consideration as well as on changing the way of voting thereon.

Chairman may not prevent persons, authorized to participate in discussions on agenda items from delivering their speeches, with exception of cases when such speeches result in breach of a meeting time-limit or when the debates over such issue have been closed.

10. 41. General meeting of shareholders shall be entitled to make decisions on adjourning extending its work, including postponing the consideration of certain items on agenda of general meeting of shareholders to the next day, provided that a relevant record in the minutes of the meeting is made.

- 10.42. General meeting of shareholders shall be declared closed only after consideration of all items on the agenda and taking decisions on them.
- 10.43. The Secretary of general meeting of shareholders shall be responsible for completeness and adequacy of any information recorded in the minutes of general meeting of shareholders.
- 10.44. Decisions at a general meeting of shareholders may be taken through absentee voting. Absentee voting may be applied alongside with voting of shareholders attending general meeting of shareholders (mixed voting), or without convocation of general meeting of shareholders.
- 10.45. At absentee voting, ballots for voting of the unified form shall be sent (distributed) to persons who are included in the list of shareholders.

The Company may not send voting ballots in a differentiated way to selected shareholders for the purpose of affecting the results of voting at a general meeting of shareholders.

- 10.46. Voting ballots are to be forwarded to all persons included in the list of shareholders not later than 45 (forty-five) days prior to a general meeting of shareholders. In absentee voting without holding a general meeting of shareholders, the Company shall publish an absentee voting ballot along with a notification on holding of general meeting of shareholders in the mass media specified in paragraph 10.16 of the Charter.
- 10.47. A ballot for absentee voting shall contain:
- 1) full name and location of the Company's Management Board;
  - 2) information on the initiator of the meeting to be convened;
  - 3) final date of submission of ballots for absentee voting;
  - 4) date on which general meeting of shareholders will be held or the date on which the absentee votes will be counted without holding a general meeting of shareholders;

  - 8) voting options for each item on the agenda of general meeting of shareholders, stated by words "for", "against" and "abstained";
  - 9) an explanation of the voting procedures (filling out of ballot) for every item on agenda.

- 10.48. An absentee ballot is to be signed by a shareholder as a physical person, with specification of personal identification details.

An absentee ballot for shareholder as a legal entity shall be signed by its head and affixed with the seal of such legal entity.

A ballot without the signature of a shareholder as a physical person or the head of a shareholder which is a legal entity as well as without seal affixed by such shareholder being a legal entity shall be considered invalid.

The votes on the ballot shall be counted provided that a shareholder observed the voting procedures thereof subject to the ballot and has marked only one possible voting option.

- 10.49. If the agenda of general meeting of shareholders includes items regarding the election of members to the Board of Directors, the ballot for absentee voting shall contain margins for indication of the number of votes given for individual candidates.
- 10.50. If a shareholder who has earlier forwarded an absentee ballot, arrives at shareholders' general meeting and participates in mixed voting, his (her) ballot shall not be taken into account in determining the quorum of general meeting and counting votes on the agenda items.
- 10.51. Voting at a general meeting of shareholders shall be conducted on a one share-one vote method, except the following cases:
- 1) limitation of maximum number of votes for shares granted to one shareholder in cases stipulated by the legislative acts of the Republic of Kazakhstan;
  - 2) cumulative voting in electing members of the Board of Directors;
  - 3) granting every person authorized to vote at a general meeting of shareholders a (one) vote over procedural issues of a general meeting of shareholders.

Following the results of voting the counting commission shall draft and sign the minutes on the result of voting.

If a shareholder has a special opinion on an item put to vote the Company's counting commission is obliged to make a relevant record in the minutes.

Once the minutes on the results of voting have been prepared and signed, completed ballots for secret voting in person and for absentee voting (including canceled ballots), on the basis of which the minutes were drafted, are to be laced together with minutes and handed over to records of the Company.

The minutes on voting results are to be attached to minutes of general meeting of shareholders.

The result of voting shall be announced at the general meeting during which voting was taken. Paragraph 6 has been amended in compliance with the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan, dated July 8, 2005, No.(see the previous version).

The result of voting at a general meeting of shareholders or the result of absentee voting shall be brought to notice of shareholders by publishing such results in the mass media specified in paragraph 10.16 of the Charter within 10 (ten) days after closing of general meeting of shareholders.

10. 52. The minutes of a general meeting of shareholders shall be drafted and signed within 3 (three) working days following the meeting closure.
- 10.53. The minutes of general meeting of shareholders shall specify:
- 1) full name and location of the Company's Management Board;
  - 2) date, time and venue of general meeting of shareholders;

- 2) human resources
- 3) remuneration;
- 4) internal audit;
- 5) social matters;
- 6) business planning;
- 7) corporate governance;
- 8) other matters provided for by Legislation and internal documents of the Company.

The committees of the Board of Directors are composed of members of the Board of Directors and experts having professional knowledge necessary for the work in a certain committee. The Board of Directors may engage experts out of employees of the Company having necessary knowledge, as advised by the Management Board of the Company. The Board of Directors may make a resolution on engagement of other natural persons as experts.

The procedures of formation and operation, quantitative compositions of the committees of the Board of Directors, as well as procedures for interaction between them and the Board of Directors of the Company shall be established by the Company's internal documents developed in accordance with best practice applied in listing companies, and approved by the Board of Directors.

12.6. Only a natural person may be a member of the Board of Directors.

Members of the Board of Directors shall be elected from:

- 1) shareholders who are natural persons;
- 2) persons proposed/recommended to be elected to the Board of Directors as representatives of the shareholders' interests;
- 3) other persons (subject to limitations provided for by paragraph 12.8 of the Charter).

Members of the Board of Directors shall be elected by cumulative voting. Each shareholder may give votes, according to the number of shares it has, all to 1 (one) candidate or distribute them between several candidates to the Board of Directors. Candidates having the majority of votes are considered to be elected members of the Board of Directors. If two or more candidates gain an equal number of votes then a further voting shall be held for such candidates.

12.7. A member of the Board of Directors may be elected from natural persons that are neither shareholders of the Company nor proposed/recommended for election to the Board of Directors as persons representing the interests of the shareholders. The number of such persons may not exceed one half of the members of the Board of Directors.

The number of independent directors, being members of the Board of Directors who are identified by the Board of Directors to be independent in accordance with the Legislation and the Code shall be at least one third of the total membership of the Board of Directors.

12.8. Members of the Management Board except for its Chairman may not be elected to the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Management Board may not be elected as Chairman of the Board of Directors as well as chairman of any committee of the Board.

12.9. The number of members of the Board of Directors shall (in the absence of casual vacancies) include at least 8 (eight) persons, including at least 1/3 (one third) of independent directors and Chief Executive Officer (Chairman of the Management Board).

12.10. No person may be a member of the Board of Directors that:

- 1) does not have higher education or secondary professional education;
- 2) has an outstanding conviction not cancelled or lifted in accordance with established legal procedure;

- 3) had been earlier an executive employee (Chairman of the Board of Directors, Chief Executive Officer (Chairman of the Management Board), Deputy CEO, Chief Accountant) of any legal entity which was declared bankrupt or exposed to mothballing, readjustment, compulsory liquidation during the term of office of such person. This requirement has its effect within five years from the date of decision on bankruptcy, readjustment, compulsory liquidation was taken.
- 12.11. Persons elected to the Board of Directors may be re-elected for any number of times unless otherwise stipulated by Legislation or the Charter.
- 12.12. The term of office of the Board of Directors is established by General meeting of shareholders.

The term of office of the Board of Directors shall expire at the moment of holding of the general meeting where the new Board of Directors is elected.
- 12.13. The general meeting of shareholders may early terminate the powers of all or any member of the Board of Directors.
- 12.14. Early termination of powers of a member of the Board of Directors on his/her initiative is conducted on the basis of written notification to Board of Directors.

The powers of such member of the Board of Directors are terminated from the moment of receipt of such notification by the Board of Directors.
- 12.15. In the event of early termination of powers of any member of the Board of Directors a new member of the Board of Directors shall be elected by cumulative voting of shareholders present at general meeting, provided that powers of such newly elected member of the Board of Directors shall be terminated concurrently with expiration of term of office of the Board of Directors as a whole.
- 12.16. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected from its members by a majority of vote of the total number of members of the Board of Directors by open voting.
- 12.17. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall:
  - 1) arrange the activities of the Board of Directors;
  - 2) conduct meetings of the Board of Directors;
  - 3) convene meetings of the Board of Directors and chair such meetings;
  - 4) sign on behalf of the Company labor contract with the Chief Executive Officer (Chairman of the Management Board);
  - 5) approve the job descriptions of the head of the Internal Audit Service.
- 12.18. In the event the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent, his functions shall be fulfilled by one of the members of the Board of Directors upon the resolution of the Board of Directors made by majority votes of its members participating at the meeting.
- 12.19. A meeting of the Board of Directors may be convened on the initiative of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Management Board or upon request of:
  - 1) any member of the Board of Directors;
  - 2) the Internal Audit Service of the Company;
  - 3) an auditor auditing the Company;
  - 4) a major shareholder.
- 12.20. The request for convening the meeting of the Board of Directors with appropriate materials enclosed shall be submitted to the Chairman of the Board of Directors by sending an appropriate written notice containing the proposed agenda for the meeting of the Board of Directors.

If the Chairman of the Board of Directors declines to convene the meeting, the initiator may apply with same request to the Management Board which is obliged to convene the meeting of the Board of Directors.

The meeting of the Board of Directors shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the Management Board within ten days from the date of receipt of the request on convening. Such meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held with the mandatory invitation of the person who made such request.

- 12.21. The procedure for submission of notifications on holding a meeting of the Board of Directors to the members of the Board of Directors is determined by the Board of Directors.

The agenda of the meeting of the Board of Directors in person is approved by the majority of votes of the members of the Board of Directors present at the meeting, including the majority of votes of independent directors. The agenda of the meeting of the Board of Directors may be amended, if all the members of the Board of Directors, including the independent directors, vote for the introduction thereto.

- 12.22. A member of the Board of Directors shall notify the Management Board of the Company of his/her impossibility to participate in the meeting of the Board of Directors in advance.

- 12.23. The members of the Board or of any committee of the Board of Directors as well as experts may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference call or any other communication media allowing all persons to participate in the meeting to hear each other and speak to each other. Members of the Board of Directors participating by such means shall be deemed present in person at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote or be counted in a quorum in accordance with the provisions of the Charter.

- 12.24. The quorum required for plenipotentiary meeting of the Board of Directors shall be  $\frac{2}{3}$  (two thirds) out of the total membership of the Board of Directors, including at least  $\frac{2}{3}$  (two thirds) of independent non-executive directors.

If the total number of members of the Board of Directors is not sufficient for the quorum, the Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders for the election of new members of the Board of Directors. The remaining members of the Board of Directors may make a resolution only on convening of such extraordinary general meeting of shareholders.

In the event the Board of Directors should make a resolution on interested party transaction, the quorum shall be at least 2 (two) members of the Board of Directors, disinterested (or deem to be so) in such transaction. The resolution on conclusion of such transaction is made by simple majority of votes of members of the Board of Directors present at the meeting and disinterested in the conclusion of such transaction.

- 12.25. Each member of the Board of Directors shall have one vote. Resolutions of the Board of Directors shall be made by simple majority of votes of the members of the Board of Directors present at the meeting unless otherwise stipulated by the Legislation and the Charter. The transfer of voting rights by a member of the Board of Directors of the Company to any person, including other members of the Board of Directors is not allowed. The members of the Board of Directors may not appoint an alternate director to attend any meeting of the Board of Directors in their absence.

Upon a tied vote the vote of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the person presiding at the meeting of the Board of Directors shall be decisive.

In the event of entire or partial disagreement of a member of the Board of Directors with a resolution made by the Board of Directors, he/she shall set forth the disagreement in the form of dissenting opinion on the item put to vote which is recorded by corporate secretary in the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors in person. In the event of decision-making by the Board of Directors by absentee voting, the dissenting opinion of a member of the Board of Directors shall be expressed in writing and attached to the filled in ballots.

12.26. The Board of Directors may decide to hold a closed meeting where only Board members can participate.

12.27. At the discretion of the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company, resolutions on issues put to meetings may be made by absentee vote. In such a case the ballots may be used for voting on the agenda items. Resolutions made by absentee vote shall be deemed taken if there is a quorum in the ballots received by due date.

The resolution of an absentee vote of the Board of Directors shall be executed in written form and signed by the corporate secretary and the Chairman of the Board of Directors. Within 20 (twenty) days following the execution of the decision, it shall be sent to the members of the Board of Directors with copies of the ballots based on which the decision was made.

The meeting of the Board of Directors by correspondence is not allowed: when decisions are taken on the priority lines of the Company's activities, when a new Chairman of the Board of Directors is elected and when other issues are considered determined by the Board of Directors.

12.28. Resolutions of the Board of Directors made at a formal meeting shall be executed by minutes which shall be prepared and signed by the person that presided at the meeting and by the corporate secretary of the Board of Directors within 3 (three) days of such meeting and shall contain:

- 1) full name and location of the Management Board of the Company;
- 2) date, time and venue of meeting;
- 3) information regarding the persons that participated in the meeting;
- 4) agenda of meeting;
- 5) issues put to voting and the results of the voting;
- 6) speeches of the persons participating at a meeting of the Board of Directors
- 7) dissenting opinions of the members of the Board of Directors;
- 8) decisions made;
- 9) other information upon resolution of the Board of Directors;

12.29. Minutes of meetings and decisions of the Board of Directors shall be kept in the archives of the Company.

The corporate secretary of the Company that is elected by the Board of Directors on a permanent basis and performs job responsibilities of the secretary of the Board of Directors, upon the request of a member of the Board of Directors shall submit to such member the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors for review and resolutions passed by absentee voting and/or provide him/her with excerpts from the minutes and resolution with attested signature of the corporate secretary and affixed with impression of the seal of the Board of Directors.
