- 10.5. AGM shall be convened by the Board of Directors.
- 10.6. An extraordinary general meeting of shareholders shall be called by:
- 1) Board of Directors;
 - 2) major shareholder.

An extraordinary general meeting of shareholders of the Company if it is under the process of a voluntary liquidation, may be convened, arranged and held by the Company's liquidation committee.

Obligatory convocation of an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders may be provided for by Laws.

- 10.7. Arrangement and holding of general meeting of shareholders shall be carried out by:
- 1) Management Board;
 - 2) Company's Registrar in accordance with contract signed;
 - 3) Board of Directors;
 - 4) (if applicable) Company's Liquidation Committee.
- 10.8. Expenses on convocation, arrangement and holding of general meeting of shareholders shall be borne by the Company except as otherwise provided by Laws.

- 10.9. An annual general meeting of shareholders may be convened and held in virtue of court decision based on a claim of any person concerned should Company's bodies violate the order of convening annual general meeting of shareholders established by Laws.

An extraordinary general meeting of shareholders may be convened and held as per court decision based on a claim from the major shareholder if the bodies of the Company failed to fulfil shareholder's request to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders.

- 10.10. Request for convening an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, including the major shareholder, shall be submitted to the Board of Directors by delivering an appropriate written request containing the agenda of such meeting to the principal place of business of the Company's management board.

The Company's Board of Directors may not amend wording of agenda items or change the proposed order of an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders convened upon request of the major shareholder.

When convening an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders in accordance with submitted request, the Board of Directors may propose any items for inclusion into the agenda of general meeting, at its own discretion.

Should the request for convening an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders come from the major shareholder/shareholders, it shall contain names (corporate names) of the shareholders/shareholder requesting convening of such a meeting, and specification of the number and type of the shares it owns.

A request for convening an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders shall be signed by a person (persons) requesting the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders.

- 10.11. The Board of Directors shall, within 10 (ten) business days from receipt of the said request, pass a resolution and, no later than 3 (three) business days from the passing of such resolution, send a notice with the resolution passed to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders or to refuse its convening to the person who submitted such request.

A resolution of the Company's Board of Directors to refuse convening an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders upon request of the major shareholder may be passed in case:

- 1) the procedure for submission of a request for convening an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders prescribed by Laws and this Charter has not been observed;
- 2) items proposed for inclusion into the agenda of an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders do not comply with Laws.

A resolution of the Company's Board of Directors to refuse convening an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders may be litigated.

In case the Company's Board of Directors does not pass a resolution to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders at the submitted request within the period established by Laws, the person requesting to convene it may apply to court with the request to compel the Company to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders.

- 10.12. Registrar of the Company shall make a list of shareholders authorized to attend general meeting of shareholders on the basis of register data of the Company's shareholders. The record date shall not be fixed before the date of decision on holding of general meeting of shareholders.

Information to be included into the list of shareholders shall be established by the authorized body.

- 10.13. If after drawing up the list of shareholders authorized to attend and vote at general meeting of shareholders a person included into this list has made an alienation of its voting shares, the right to take part at general meeting of shareholders shall be transferred to a new shareholder. In such a case, all the documents evidencing the share ownership are to be presented.
- 10.14. The date and time of holding general meeting of shareholders shall be fixed in such a manner so that the majority of shareholders entitled to attend the meeting could attend it. General meetings of shareholders shall be held in Astana, Kazakhstan.
- 10.15. Shareholders shall be notified of forthcoming general meeting not later than 30 (thirty) calendar days prior to its holding, and in case of absentee or mixed voting not later than 45 (forty-five) calendar days prior to the date of the meeting.
- 10.16. A notice of holding of general meeting of shareholders shall be published in Kazakhstanskaya Pravda and/or Yegemen Kazakhstan newspapers as well as in other newspapers subject to the requirements of the listing rules of a stock exchange where ordinary shares of the Company are listed.

Countdown of time provided in clause 10.15 of the Charter shall commence from the date of publication of notice of general meeting of shareholders in the mass media as specified in this clause or from the date of sending written messages to the shareholders.

- 10.17. A notice of holding a Company's general meeting shall contain:
 - 1) full name and location of the Management Board of the Company;
 - 2) information about a person initiating the meeting;
 - 3) date, time and venue of general meeting of shareholders, commencement of registration of participants and date/time of the second general meeting of shareholders to be convened in case of failure to conduct the first one;
 - 4) record date of the shareholders entitled to attend general meeting of shareholders;
 - 5) agenda of general meeting of shareholders;
 - 6) procedure of familiarization of shareholders with materials concerning the agenda of general meeting of shareholders.

A minority shareholder may refer to the Company's registrar to join other shareholders when making a decision on agenda items of general meeting of shareholders.

The procedure for an inquiry by a minority shareholder and for dissemination of information to other shareholders by the registrar of the Company shall be established by an agreement on maintaining the register of security holders.

- 10.18. The second (rescheduled) general meeting may be called not earlier than the day after the fixed date of the first (adjourned) general meeting of shareholders.
- 10.19. The venue of the second general meeting of shareholders shall be the same as that of the meeting, which has been adjourned.
- 10.20. The agenda of the second general meeting of shareholders must not differ from the agenda of the meeting that has been adjourned.
- 10.21. An agenda of a general meeting of shareholders must be drawn up by the Board of Directors and contain an exhaustive list of particular matters submitted for discussion. No wording with ambiguous meaning may be used in the agenda. This includes the words "miscellaneous", "other", "some" and similar words.

The agenda of the general meeting of shareholders may be supplemented by the majority shareholder or by the Board of Directors on the condition that the Company's shareholders have been notified about such supplements not later than 15 (fifteen) days prior to the holding of the general meeting or in the manner established by clause 10.24 of the Charter.

- 10.22. At the opening of a general meeting of shareholders attended in person, the Company Secretary shall report on the received proposals for supplementing the agenda.
- 10.23. The approval of an agenda of general meeting of shareholders shall be made by a simple majority of votes out of the total voting shares present at the meeting.
- 10.24. Amendments to the agenda may be introduced if the majority of shareholders (or their representatives) attending shareholders' general meeting holding in aggregate 95% (ninety-five per cent) of voting shares, have voted affirmatively.

The agenda may be amended with an item that, if approved by a resolution, may restrict the rights of the shareholders owning preferred shares, if at least two thirds of the total number of the outstanding (less redeemed) preferred shares have voted in its favour.

If general meeting of shareholders makes a decision by absentee voting, then its agenda may be neither changed nor supplemented.

- 10.25. General meeting of shareholders may not consider matters that have not been included into its agenda or take any decisions thereof.
- 10.26. Materials concerning an agenda of general meeting of shareholders shall contain information in volume necessary for making reasonable decisions. The company secretary shall ensure that materials on the agenda items of general meeting are composed.
- 10.27. Materials on appointment of the Company's bodies (Board of Directors) shall include the following information about proposed candidates:
 - 1) last name, first name, (father's name – optional);
 - 2) information on education;
 - 3) affiliation with the Company;
 - 4) work record and positions filled within the last 3 (three) years;
 - 5) other information that verifies the qualification and experience of candidates.

In the event the item concerning election of the Company's Board of Directors (election of a new member of the Board of Directors) is included in the agenda of general meeting of shareholders, the materials shall specify a shareholder nominating the candidate member to the Board of Directors and/or whether this person is a candidate for the post of an independent director of the Company. If the candidate to the Board of Directors is a shareholder or an individual specified in the first part of clause 12.7 of the Charter, then this information shall also be specified in the materials including information about voting shares owned by the shareholder as of the date of making up the shareholders list.

- 10.28. Materials for items on the agenda of annual general meeting of shareholders must include:
 - 1) annual consolidated financial statements of the Company;
 - 2) audit report accompanying annual consolidated financial statements;
 - 3) proposals made by the Board of Directors on distribution of the Company's net profit for the last year and size of dividend per annum per (1) ordinary and (1) preferred share of the Company;

- 4) materials on inquiries made by shareholders in relation to actions of the Company and its officers and results of consideration of such inquiries;
- 5) annual report of the Company, annual report on performance of the Board of Directors and the Management Board;
- 6) any other documents at the discretion of initiator of general meeting of shareholders.

10.29. Annual report of the Company shall be prepared by the Management Board of the Company then approved and submitted by the Company's Board of Directors to general meeting of shareholders for consideration.

Annual report of the Company as the minimum shall include audited financial statements, report on significant events of the Company's performance for the past period as well as description of responsibility of Company's officers for the credibility of statements made in the Company's annual report.

The approved annual report of the Company shall be posted to the Company website.

- 8) voting options for each item on the agenda of general meeting of shareholders, stated by words “for”, “against” and “abstained”;

- 9) an explanation of the voting procedures (filling out of ballot) for every item on agenda.
- 10.48. An absentee ballot is to be signed by a shareholder as an individual, with specification of personal identification details.
- An absentee ballot for shareholder as a legal entity shall be signed by its head and affixed with the seal of such legal entity.
- A ballot without the signature of a shareholder as an individual or the head of a shareholder which is a legal entity as well as without seal affixed by such shareholder being a legal entity shall be considered invalid.
- The votes on the ballot shall be counted provided that a shareholder observed the voting procedures thereof subject to the ballot and has marked only one possible voting option.
- 10.49. If the agenda of general meeting of shareholders includes items regarding the election of members to the Board of Directors, the ballot for absentee voting shall contain a space for indication of the number of votes given for individual candidates.
- 10.50. If a shareholder, who had earlier forwarded an absentee ballot, arrives at general meeting of shareholders and participates in mixed voting, his/her ballot shall not be taken into account when determining the quorum of general meeting of shareholders and when counting votes on the agenda items.
- 10.51. Voting at a general meeting of shareholders shall be conducted on a one share-one vote principle, unless:
- 1) maximum number of votes is limited for shares granted to one shareholder in cases stipulated by the legislative acts of the Republic of Kazakhstan;
 - 2) cumulative voting in electing members to the Board of Directors takes place;
 - 3) each person authorized to vote at a general meeting of shareholders is granted 1 (one) vote over procedural matters of a general meeting of shareholders.
- Following the results of voting the counting commission shall draft and sign the minutes on the result of voting.
- If a shareholder has a special opinion on an item put to vote the Company’s counting commission is obliged to make a relevant record in the minutes.
- Once the minutes on results of voting have been prepared and signed, completed ballots for secret voting in person and for absentee voting (including cancelled ballots), on the basis of which the minutes were drafted, are to be bound together with minutes and kept in the Company.
- The minutes on voting results are to be attached to minutes from general meeting of shareholders.
- The results of the voting shall be announced at the general meeting of shareholders during which voting was taken.
- The results of the voting at a general meeting of shareholders or the result of absentee voting shall be brought to notice of shareholders by publishing such results in the mass media specified in clause 10.16 of the Charter within 15 (fifteen) calendar days after closing of the general meeting of shareholders.
- 10.52. The minutes from general meeting of shareholders shall be drafted and signed within 3 (three) business days following the meeting closure.
- 10.53. The minutes from general meeting of shareholders shall specify:
- 1) full name and location of the Company’s Management Board;

- 2) date, time and venue of general meeting of shareholders;
- 3) information about the number of voting shares of the Company presented at a general meeting of shareholders;

- 9) the total number of shareholders' votes on each agenda item of general meeting of shareholders put to vote;
- 10) items put to vote and results of voting thereon;
- 11) resolutions made by general meeting of shareholders.

In the event of consideration of the item concerning election of the Company's Board of Directors (election of a new member to the Board of Directors) at a general meeting of shareholders the minutes from such general meeting shall record which shareholder the elected member of the Board of Directors represents and/or which of the elected members of the Board of Directors is an independent director.

10.54. The minutes from general meeting of shareholders shall be signed by:

- 1) Chair (members of Presidium) of general meeting of shareholders and Company Secretary;
- 2) members of the Counting Commission;
- 3) shareholders holding 10 (ten) or more per cent of voting shares in the Company and attending a general meeting of shareholders;

If a person authorized to sign minutes cannot do it, the minutes shall be signed by his/her representative on the basis of the power of attorney issued on his/her name or by a person authorized in accordance with Laws or agreement to act without the power of attorney on behalf of the shareholder or represent its interests.

10.55. Should any person, referred to in clause 10.54 of the Charter, disagree with the content of the minutes, the above person shall be entitled to refuse to sign the minutes presenting reasons for such refusal in writing which should be attached to the minutes.

10.56. Minutes from general meeting of shareholders shall be bound together with minutes on the result of voting, powers of attorney authorizing attendance and voting at a general meeting, as well as signatory and written explanations of those who refused to sign the minutes indicating reasons for such refusal. These documents shall be kept by the Management Board of the Company and shall be provided to shareholders for consideration at any time. If requested, a shareholder shall be given a copy of minutes from general meeting of shareholders.
